1 Samuel 30:3-6 (NKJV)

So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive. Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep. And David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive. Now David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

Hebrews 10:35-38 (NKJV)

For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise: "For yet a little while, Now the just shall live by faith; And He who is coming will come and will not tarry. But if anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him."

Matthew 7:7 (NKJV)

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.
